People With disabilities Western Australia State Conference 2025

Thursday 19 June 2025 – Day One

Time	Format
Conference MC	Michael Keady Michael Keady, known as Mike the Nerd Therapist, is a mental health counsellor, school wellbeing specialist, and advocate for disability inclusion. As a person with disabilities, he creates accessible, engaging therapy spaces using pop culture, gaming, and storytelling. Founder of Pop Culture Competence, Mike trains therapists, educators, and parents on using anime, video games, and sci-fi to connect with neurodivergent individuals. His work has been widely recognized, including a feature interview with Particle. With his warmth, humour, and dynamic presence, Mike is an exceptional MC. His ability to energize a room and connect with audiences ensures this year's State Disability Conference will be both inspiring and inclusive.

Passion meets Leadership: Inspiring change through action

Hear from a panel of disabled leaders on the different ways you can be a leader with disability. We'll discuss leadership styles, including leading by influence and the experiences of leaders with disabilities. Attendees will join in an activity to ask questions of panel members and identify the goals and actions they can take themselves. There will be opportunity for attendees to connect with like-minded individuals and take action beyond the session. The panel will include Samantha Jenkinson, Kat Johns, Claire Anderson and Danielle Loizou-Lake. Session format will have panel members each sharing their leadership style and a strategy or skill they use or think is essential for leadership followed by question and answer with audience.
